AWFUL DEATH.

A WASHINGTON WOMAN FATALLY BURNED BY A GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

THE VICTIM THE WIFE OF A WELL KNOWN OFFICER OF THE NAVY.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Fire and explosion in the residence of Captain Dickens of the United States navy, at 10:15 o'clock this morning, resulted in the death of Mrs. Dickens, who was fearfully burned and died before medical assistance could reach her. Other persons about the house were severely but not dangerously wounded.

DEATH CAME IN A FLASH.

The Dickens residence is a handsome three-story brick building on Nineteenth street, directly back of the British Embassy and within a few steps of Dupont Circle. The first intimation of the fire was a low rumble, followed by several violent shocks, which blew out the entire third-story front of the residence. The firemen made their way to the third story, and among the debris littering the front room they found the blackened corpse of a woman.

GASOLINE'S DEADLY WORK.

From the details of the accident, as learned from those who were in the house at the time, it appears that Joseph Vaughan, a plumber, and his assistant, were putting on a gutter at the rear of the roof. Having completed the job, they descended the ladder to the third story. The plumber's assistant carried a lighted melting pot. Vaughan detected the strong fumes of gasoline, and through the open door to the front room caught a glimpse of a woman sprinkling liquid on the floor, with the evident purpose of preparing to cleanse it.

A SERIES OF EXPLOSIONS.

He gave warning to his partner that gasoline was being used, and there was danger from the firepot, but at that instant a terrific explosion occurred, literally enveloping the entire third story in a mass of flames. Those outside the building say there were successive explosions, and that the last ones were so sharp and violent that they must have come from souvenir cartridges or other explosives.

The two men succeeded in making their way to the rear windows, where they got to a one-story building and thence to the ground. They were severely burned about the hands and face.

THE VICTIM IDENTIFIED.

The most sorrowful scene occurred in connection with the recovery and identification of Mrs. Dickens' body. In the midst of the greatest excitement the first report was that the blackened body in the upper story was that of the wife of a distinguished Admiral of the navy. He was summoned from his home near by, and not only detected the mistake, but also gave the first definite information that Mrs. Dickens was the one so horribly burned.

CAPT. DICKENS OVERCOME.

Word was sent to the Navy Department, where Captain Dickens is next to Admiral Crowinshield at the head of the Bureau of Navigation. The exact character of the catastrophe was not made known to him, but he was brought hurriedly to the residence in a carriage. He almost fainted as he was helped from the carriage up the street entrance steps. He identified the body as that of his wife. The body of Mrs. Dickens was borne to the next house, where a surgeon of the navy resides.

The suddenness and fatal effects of the fire was somewhat similar to those attending the fatality at the residence of Secretary Tracy some years ago, which was not far from the scene of the present horror.

CAPT. DICKENS' PROMINENCE.

Captain Dickens is one of the best known officers connected with the Navy Department, and he was brought into prominence at the time the Maine was blown up at Havana. He was then acting Chief of the Navigation Bureau, and it fell to his lot to receive the first dispatch from Captain Sigsbee, giving information of the disaster.

THE DEAD WOMAN A WRITER.

Mrs. Dickens was an authoress of some note, one of her best known books being "Around the World in a Man-of-War." She was also a frequent contributor to magazines.

LAST DAY OF HENLEY RACES.

Howell, the American, Wins Diamond Sculls.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HENLEY ON THAMES, July 7.—Contrary to all precedent, the Henley Royal Regatta promises to pass without rain. The last day opened brilliantly. Immense crowds were everywhere. Today's events are final. The racing commenced at 12:30 p. m.

In the final heat for the Grand Challenge cup, the Leander Club beat the London Rowing Club. The Leander crews, with a stroke of forty-one to the London crew's forty, were speedily in front, and gradually forged ahead, winning by a length and a quarter in 7:12.

In the final heat for the Visitors' Challenge cup (fours), Balliol College, Oxford, beat New College, Oxford. Balliol won by a length. Time, 8:01.

In the final heat for the Thames Challenge cup, First Trinity beat the Kingston Rowing Club.

Howell, the American, of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, beat Blackstaffe of the Vesta Rowing Club in the final heat for the Diamond sculls, of which Howell is the holder.

In the final heat for the Wyefield Challenge cup (fours), Trinity Hall beat the London Rowing Club.

DEADLOCK OVER THE BOUNDARY.

Dispute With Canada in a Critical Stage.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, July 7.—The officials of the Foreign Office were shown today the dispatch of the Associated Press from Washington of Thursday saying there was almost a deadlock over the modus vivendi fixing the Alaskan boundary, neither side being willing to accept the provisional line proposed by the other. The officials confirm the contents of the dispatch, acknowledging the situation is grave, and say the present outlook is more unsatisfactory than at any time since February. This is keenly regretted at the Foreign Office, as it had been thought the negotiations were in a very fair status.

It has been learned by a representative of the Associated Press that United States Embassador Choate received this morning important dispatches from Washington regarding the negotiations.

Noted Financer Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Colonel A. T. Britton, first vice president of the American Security and Trust Company, and widely known in financial circles all over the country, died at his country residence here today.

BIG RUSH NOW FAIRLY BEGUN.

Teachers Coming into Los Angeles by the Thousands.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Notwithstanding that the first big rush of Eastern visitors to attend the National Educational Convention began today, the local committee of entertainment is still meeting all the new-comers beyond the gates of the city and extending a hearty California welcome and bestowing upon them in a lavish manner fruits and flowers.

Prominent educators from even as far East as New York are beginning to arrive. Today there arrived Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, New York; Robert B. Fulton of the University of Mississippi, and A. R. Taylor of Emporia, Kas., president of the National Council of Education.

The first regular meeting of any of the auxiliary organizations takes place tomorrow morning, when a three-day session of the Council of Education begins.

The weather is warm today, and the majority of the visitors are seeking the seashore or the mountains.

The arrivals today will be nearly if not quite 2,000.

TRAIN WRECKED BY A CLOUDBUST

Firemen Killed and the Passengers Are Shaken Up.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—Fireman Joseph Welty of St. Joseph was killed and twenty passengers were slightly injured in a wreck on the Burlington road half a mile from Wall Iron, Mo., last night, the northbound train for Omaha going through a culvert. A relief train from Kansas City carried physicians, who cared for the injured.

The wrecked train, at the time of the accident, was running about twenty-five miles an hour. A cloudburst had washed out a considerable piece of track a few minutes before, and with ten minutes the water rose three feet on the level. A terrific wind was blowing. The engine passed over the culvert without leaving the rails. The mail car was turned over on its side and washed twenty feet from the track. For fifteen minutes the scene was a veritable whirlpool. The baggage car was overthrown and carried thirty feet from the track. The first coach was thrown on its side, and the sleeper, containing seventeen passengers, was also overturned. Fortunately all passengers were soon gotten on dry land.

The engineer remained on his seat and was not hurt. Fireman Welty jumped to save himself. His body was found on top of driftwood against the floor of the overturned mail car. The passengers were shaken up and some traveling men slightly injured. A. J. Davis, a traveling man for a Philadelphia house, had a foot crushed. He was the only one not able to walk after the accident. No one received broken bones. The water disappeared almost as quickly as it had risen.

MURDER

Was That the Object of a Remarkable Visitor?

Mrs. Mary Green and her daughter, who reside on Third street, between Peralta and Henry streets, reported to Chief of Police Hodgkins, this morning, an episode which took place in their home a few nights ago and they are uncertain as to whether the hero of the occurrence was a lunatic or a burglar.

They reported the occurrence, they said, because they understood the police were looking after a crazy man.

Mrs. Green said that on the night referred to her husband was aroused from his sleep and discovered a man standing silently beside his bed.

The husband's first impulse was to rush upon the untimely visitor and place him under arrest. He realized, however, that the fellow might be armed and do him bodily injury. He then decided on another course. He asked the stranger what he was doing there and received the answer, "nothing." To the query as to what the stranger wanted came the reply "nothing." Green made a movement to leave his couch, whereupon the visitant of the night turned and as he majestically strode toward the door exclaimed "I wanted to go to sleep," and then like a flash left the apartment and the house. The occurrence has startled the Green family and caused them to speculate as to what the fellow would have done had he not been discovered, evidently soon after his entrance to the room.

NOTED MAN DEAD.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 7.—George W. Julian, the famous Abolitionist, died at his home at Irvington today.

In 1859 he was a candidate for the vice-presidency on the Free Soil ticket, and was a delegate to the first Republican convention at Pittsburg, in 1859. He served several terms in Congress. In May, 1885, he served as Surveyor-General of New Mexico.

HUNDREDS ARE YET IN PERIL.

Flood Sufferers Need Immediate Relief.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

RICHMOND, Texas, July 7.—Never in the history of Richmond were such scenes witnessed as are depicted today. Business is practically suspended. Many plantations are under water. All trains except those on the Southern Pacific west have been abandoned. Provisions are running low, and unless some are received quickly there will be suffering in a few days.

It is believed there will be at least five to seven thousand people to feed in this place within a week. The water has reached the river bridge, and is dashing between the iron guy rods under it, and for the first time the railroad company has stopped all traffic over it.

SCENE OF DESOLATION.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dallas, Texas, says: M. B. Wyrick, foreman of the repairing forces of the Postal Telegraph Company, who was sent out from Dallas on Wednesday to Sealey, reported to headquarters here at 11 o'clock today. He had to pick his way from Smithsville to Sealey, sixty-six miles on railroad construction trains, which could not travel faster than five miles an hour. The trains can get no further than Sealey, which is at the northern edge of the main flood district.

Wyrick says the Brazos river at Sealey has fallen eight inches in the last twenty-four hours. While the highest estimates of the loss of life by the flood may have been somewhat exaggerated, still the number is large, and cannot be definitely known for several days, as everything is in a state of demoralization and confusion.

On the Dewey side of the Brazos, four miles from Sealey, one and one-half miles of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad track is completely washed away, five miles more is under water and is in such a condition as to make it probable that a partial rebuilding will be necessary. The Dewey railroad bridge is twisted badly, and even if it withstands the flood it will be in such a dangerous condition as to be useless. Mr. Wyrick says it is useless to attempt to describe the condition of the country. He says it is simply awful. Relief measures are now under good headway, but hundreds of persons are still to be reached and rescued from positions of peril in the bottoms.

ACTIONS TAKEN IN SCHOOL MATTERS.

The County Board of Education has decided not to grant any more special certificates to teachers to teach studies that are in the regular prescribed courses. The opinion of District Attorney Allen has been asked on the matter, and he has replied that it is not according to the school law to grant special certificates, as has been the custom in the past.

County Superintendent of Schools Crawford has received word from the State Superintendent that kindergartens may be established in any school district, and that the granting of kindergarten teachers' certificates is in the discretion of the County Board. It is recommended, however, that certificates be issued only to teachers who are graduated from some kindergarten of recognized standing.

Will Resume Practice.

Dr. D. D. Crowley and Dr. J. M. Dunn will return from Highland Springs this evening. They will resume practice tomorrow.

Contract for Repairs.

H. Behrens has taken a contract to repair the roof of the Oakland Equitable Gas Company for $1,200.

FLAMES.

Coulterville Wiped Out By Coal Oil Explosion.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

STOCKTON, July 7.—Fire erased from the map the thriving little town of Coulterville yesterday shortly after noon. Coulterville, situated in the northwestern part of Mariposa county, had a population in 1890 of over 600, but the population now is about 800.

The fire which swept the town yesterday started in the residence of Mrs. Bogollo, in the business part of town, and is believed to have been caused by coal oil which had been used in starting a fire in a stove. This was a few minutes before the noon hour. Everything being extremely dry, the house was soon enveloped in flames, which were communicated to the surrounding structures in a very short time. So rapidly did the flames sweep from house to house, that in two hours and a half sixty-seven buildings had been burned to the ground. The business portion of the town was a mass of charred and smoking ruins, and but little of the residence portion of the town remained standing.

Though the only fire apparatus in the place was an old-style hand engine, this might have prevented a spread of the flames but for the wind which blew heavily from the southwest. Strong efforts were made by citizens to arrest the progress of the flames, but without avail. The flames spread so rapidly that there was barely time to save the stock in some of the stores, and there was no time to save the buildings.

Notwithstanding the severe blow dealt the town by the fire, E. A. Grensell, the telephone agent, says there is no destitution and no calls for aid. He expressed the belief that the people could pull through all right, as none were in distress. He places the loss at $150,000. The insurance, he said, was very light, but he thought rebuilding would commence at once.

Under the circumstances the generous offer of the railroad to transport to Coulterville free of charge any goods or provisions which it might be desired to send to the town in aid of the destitute or needy will not be accepted.

The heaviest losers are C. B. McCarthy, Bruschi & Co., Percy Davis, in whose store was located the postoffice, Dozola and Mrs. Cannesconna, all handling general merchandise.

This is the third time that Coulterville has suffered by fire, it having been nearly destroyed on two previous occasions.

There is no telegraph station at Coulterville, and the Pacific telephone station was destroyed, thereby cutting off all communication. A temporary telephone connection was made, however, and today the line is in working order.

LUNA'S SLAYERS ARE ACQUITTED.

Aguinaldo's Position Is Strengthened by Rival's Death.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MANILA, July 7.—The trial at Cabunatuan of the slayers of General Luna, the Filipino leader, who was assassinated by the guard of Aguinaldo's residence, is ended. The accused were acquitted, on the ground of self defense. The testimony showed there was a conspiracy on the part of Luna and other officers to kill Aguinaldo and make Luna dictator.

Luna's death seems to have strengthened Aguinaldo's leadership for the time. Luna's supporters are now outwardly loyal to Aguinaldo.

RELEASE DEBT.

Big Deal Made by the Oakland Transit Company.

According to the terms of an agreement between the Oakland Transit Company and the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, placed on file today, the Piedmont power house and appurtenances are released from the mortgage which was made last July to secure bonds to the amount of $1,400,000.

The Transit Company is authorized to sell, lease or dispose of the power house, but the moneys so obtained must be devoted to either some or all to the following purposes: For a sinking fund; for a reduction of the bonds, or for the improvement of other properties belonging to the company.

It is also provided that holders of the original bonds may exchange them at par value for bonds on the railways which constitute the company.

Pioneer Lawyer Dead.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

STOCKTON, July 7.—News reached this city this morning of the death of W. L. Dudley, a well known attorney at Truckee, whither he went a few days ago on legal business. He had been practicing law since 1846, and came to California in 1849. The deceased was in his seventy-fifth year. He leaves a wife and family, his children all being married.

The Arrests of a Year

The total number of arrests made by the police of this city during the last fiscal year was 3,545.

BURNED

Wm. Moffitt Jumped in Creek to Save His Life.

Deputy Constable William Moffitt met with an accident yesterday afternoon that came near being attended with serious results. He was out on the estuary in a launch with Beach Soule, when a can of gasoline exploded.

In an instant Moffitt was covered with flames.

He jumped into the water to extinguish his burning clothing, and then had to hustle to keep from drowning.

After a desperate effort Moffitt managed to get back into the launch. He was badly burned.

Beach Soule fought the flames and kept the boat from sinking.

POISON.

Rathom and His Wife Exonerated by the Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The veil of mystery which has surrounded the mysterious poisoning of Mrs. Elsie Scheib and Miss Campbell, who were taken violently ill after eating poisoned candy sent through the mails, has not been lifted to any extent, and the police profess to be at sea regarding the matter.

No arrests have been made, and according to the statements of the detectives at work on the case, the probability of any one being placed behind the bars, even on suspicion of having sent the poisoned candy, is slim indeed.

The victims have no suspicions, or if they have, they will not disclose them, and the police have completely exonerated John R. Rathom and his wife from any implication in the case.

CABINET MEETING.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The President today brought before the Cabinet the plan for officering the provisional army. The decision to appoint the Colonels and Lieutenant-Colonels of the volunteer regiments from among the regular army officers who served during the Spanish war and the volunteer officers from among those who served in the volunteer army with credit or distinction, was heartily approved by the members of the Cabinet.

The records of the volunteer officers are to be fully looked into for the selection of officers below the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

Attorney-General Griggs has been examining the question of wharf and shore rights in Porto Rico and Cuba, where under the old Spanish law 1,600 feet along the shore was reserved by the government. He gave it as his opinion that the interests of the inhabitants could be subserved by granting revocable wharf privileges and water rights to the owners of abutting property. Such provisions would be revocable at the option of the government, whenever they interferred with navigation. Some general matters were also discussed in a desultory way, among them the question of tariff duties in our new possessions. Secretaries Alger and Wilson were the absentees from today's meeting.

BLEW TOP OF HIS HEAD OFF

Old Man Explodes Stick of Giant Powder in His Mouth.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

ANGELS CAMP, July 7.—Fred Peterson, over 70 years of age, committed suicide at Murphys last evening by placing a stick of giant powder in his mouth and exploding it. The charge blew the entire top of his head off. Deceased left a note in which he said he had lived in Murphys for fifty-one years, and was tired of life. The body was found at the home of Rev. Luark, where he lived.

NO TRACE OF BAKER.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Up to an early hour this afternoon the detectives who have been endeavoring to capture Willard E. Baker, who escaped from his guardians last night just as he was about to be taken on board the ferry boat en route to Boston, where he is wanted for embezzlement, have not been successful in their efforts to apprehend him. A vigorous search is being prosecuted and the police have hopes of capturing their man.

SKUNK BITES.

THE FLOOD SUFFERERS ARE SURROUNDED BY VENOMOUS SNAKES.

A THOUSAND PERSONS ARE SLOWLY PERISHING FOR LACK OF FOOD.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Austin, Texas, says:

Governor Sayers today received a message from Sealey over the telephone saying that 1,000 persons who had taken refuge on a mound three miles below there are slowly perishing for the want of food.

To add to the horror, the unfortunates are surrounded by poisonous reptiles and skunks.

Huddled together with the human beings are several hundred head of live stock.

A number of those on the mound have received bites from the reptiles and skunks, and are in a dying condition.

CHOOSE OFFICERS.

Dr. E. W. Hilgard First Vice-President of Agriculturists.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The third day of the convention of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations began today with a consideration of many matters of detail business. The question of the place of meeting next year was left to the Executive Committee.

The Nominating Committee presented its report, recommending the following officers of the association for the ensuing year:

Dr. Joseph E. Stubbs of Nevada, president; Dr. E. W. Hilgard of California, first vice president; Governor J. M. Stone of Missouri, second vice president; E. E. Smiley of Wyoming, third vice president; M. H. Buckham of Vermont, fourth vice president; M. A. Scovell of Kentucky, fifth vice president; E. B. Voorhies of New Jersey, secretary and treasurer; Dr. A. C. True, bibliographer; Dr. H. H. Goodell of Massachusetts, Colonel Liggett of Minnesota, I. H. Washburn of Rhode Island and Alexis Cope of Ohio, board of directors and executive committee. These officers were unanimously elected.

The various sections of the association, on college work, agriculture and chemistry, horticulture and botany, mechanic arts and entomology, held their regular meetings this afternoon, but their discussion was cut short, in order that the members might attend the reception given the convention this afternoon by the California State Floral Association, who entertained them in the parlors of the Occidental Hotel.

CRIME COMMITTED

Coroner Mehrmann Will Make an Investigation.

Mrs. Charlotte Spenger of Fourth street near the University avenue, Berkeley, died last night from peritonitis. She had been attended by Dr. E. Lippenberg of 425 Kearny street, San Francisco, who signed the death certificate.

Health Officer Rowell of Berkeley, however, refused to grant a burial permit and ordered Coroner Mehrmann to hold an inquest, which will be done this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the morgue in the University town.

The deceased was 41 years of age, a native of Germany and the wife of John E. Spenger, a grocer of West Berkeley.

It is believed a crime was committed.

EDITORIAL OFFICERS

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 7.—The National Editorial Association today elected the following officers: President, R. H. Henry, Jackson, Miss.; first vice president, Matt Parrott, Waterloo, Iowa; second vice president, F. B. Baillis, Clebourne, Texas; third vice president, Albert Tozier, Portland, Ore.; corresponding secretary, J. M. Page, Jerseyville, Ills.; recording secretary, R. M. White, Mexico, Mo.; treasurer, James G. Gibbs, Norwalk, Ohio.

New Orleans was chosen as the place of holding the next annual convention in February. The vote on the place of meeting was as follows: New Orleans, 202; Hot Springs, Ark., 98; Detroit, 2; Saratoga, 1.

Constable Accidentally Shot.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

FRESNO, July 7.—Constable Irvine of Sanger was accidentally shot last night. Irvine was seated tilted back in a chair when his revolver falling from his hip pocket, was discharged. The bullet passed through the arm of the chair and lodged in the fleshy part of his right arm.

AFTER NEIGHBOR.

Jens A. Schack Held to Keep the Peace.

Jens A. Schack, a farmer residing near Livermore, was placed under a bond of $500 to keep the peace yesterday by Justice Taylor. This was done because he had threatened the life of his neighbor Mrs. Chatrina Winfield.

A family feud has existed between Schack and Mrs. Winfield for a number of years. Schack claims that it was through letters written by Mrs. Winfield that his wife left him a number of years ago.

When Mrs. Schack died, in her will she appointed Mrs. Winfield administrator of her estate. Schack objected to this and also objected to the fees that were charged.

A few years ago Winfield died. Since that time Schack and Mrs. Winfield have been at swords points. A week ago he was fined $40 for battering her. He then threatened her life which was the cause of his last arrest. Deputy District Attorney Harris represented the State in the matter.

ANDERSON GUILTY OF BATTERY.

Charles Anderson, an old man, possessed of great bodily strength but with defective sight and hearing was found guilty of battery on Charles Wilson in the Police Court this morning. The assault took place at 700 Franklin. The testimony showed that Anderson had gone to Wilson's house, met Wilson at the door, charged him with pulling his (Anderson's) wife out into the street, and there assaulted him. Anderson will be sentenced tomorrow.

THE MORTALITY OF THIS CITY.

Secretary Snow of the Board of Health has collected nearly all the data for the annual report of the Health Board. The report will show among other things that, in last year there were 903 deaths as against 847 deaths for 1897-98. During last June there were 60 deaths in this city, which was the lowest mortality for any month of the last fiscal year.

FOR PUBLIC GOOD.

Boulevard Heights People Anxious for Improvements.

The Boulevard and Peralta Heights Improvement Association, held an interesting meeting last evening at their rooms, 133 Fifth avenue.

Several matters of interest, particularly to the Seventh Ward, were acted upon by the club. A communication received from the Council regarding certain city improvements, was by suggestion of President Yule laid over for discussion at the next meeting.

A committee of three, consisting of T. A. Downing, I. I. Boak and B. H. Welch was appointed by the president to interview the members of the present City Council to see what can be done toward getting a chemical fire engine located in their district. This matter was laid over by the club about six months ago until the new fiscal year on account of lack of funds in the city treasury, several members of the old Council after investigating the proposition were strongly in favor of locating the chemical somewhere in the district as it was their opinion that there was a large and thickly settled area east of the lake that was provided with very scant and insufficient fire protection.

A resolution was introduced by I. I. Boak that the club take some action toward the acquirement by the city for park purposes the piece of land lying east of the boulevard between East Twelfth street and the intersection of First avenue with the Boulevard.

The matter of the opening of East Sixteenth street from First avenue to the boulevard was discussed by the club and it was the general opinion of the members present, that it was a much needed improvement and that the club should take some action towards its immediate accomplishment.

There having been for some time a movement on foot by some of the residents of the district covered by this club to secure a sub-post office to be located at the corner of Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street, it was decided by the club to take up the matter and if possible push it to a successful termination. A committee consisting of Charles D. Hayes, Professor Kower and I. J. Boak was appointed to consult with the postal authorities on the subject.

A communication having been received by the club recommending the appointment of five delegates to assist in organizing a central club in accordance with the recommendation of Mayor Snow.

On motion the following named delegates were appointed: B. H. Welch, T. A. Downing, I. I. Boak, C. D. Hayes and William Cram, Jr. The motion was carried that President Yule and Secretary Welch be authorized to fill any vacancy occurring in said list from time to time and to certify to their appointment.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the club at the residence of T. A. Downing, 1253 Eleventh avenue on Wednesday evening, July 19th. A full attendance is desired.

What is wanted of soap for the skin is to wash it clean and not hurt it. Pure soap does that. This is why we want pure soap; and when we say pure, we mean without alkali.

Pears' is pure; no free alkali. There are a thousand virtues of soap; this one is enough. You can trust a soap that has no biting alkali in it.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

VICTIMS OF SCURVY.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 7.—Word comes from Dawson that parties arriving there from the Edmonton route report a sad state of affairs on the Wind river, a branch of the Peel. About seventy-five prospectors were wintering there, and their camp was invaded by scurvy. Fifteen or twenty are reported to have died from its effects. The remainder are more or less [illegible]. The list of names of those who died is not available.

SMELTER STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DENVER, Colo., July 7.—J. B. Grant, chairman of the operating committee of the American Smelting and Refining Company, is quoted this afternoon as follows:

"Our smelters which are idle will never start up again if we have to deal with any union to effect a settlement of this strike."

Mr. Grant further stated that he should attend the meeting of the State Board of Arbitration for the men this afternoon and request that no further efforts be made for a settlement until the validity of the eight-hour law is passed upon by the Supreme Court.

SLOAN WAS SECOND.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

LONDON, July 7.—At the first day of the Lingfield summer meeting Wallace Johnstone's Harrow won the Lingfield Park stakes of 3,000 sovereigns. Tod Sloan rode P. Lorillard's Sibola, and finished second. Seven horses ran the straight mile. The betting was 1 to 3 against Sibola.

Bond Election Delayed.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—At a special meeting today the City Council decided that owing to probable defects, the ordinance calling for a special bond election to vote on the proposition of issuing $420,000 of school improvement bonds should be repassed in amended form. This will delay the election about two weeks.

Solano County's Wealth.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SUISUN, Cal., July 7.—The assessment roll of Solano county for 1899 has been completed. The amount of taxable property is $15,973,533, an increase of $506,977 compared with the roll of 1898.

HOW A DOGGIE SAID BOW-WOW TO AN OFFICER.

Rifle Row Keep the Peace

Mary Peckham of Brooklyn township owns a bulldog.

Bengt Magnussen owns a family of children.

The bulldog tackled one of the children. While the fight was in progress Magnussen grabbed a rifle and the lady says the man pointed it at her in anger because she would not call the dog off. Anyhow, the rifle was so old it would not go off.

The dog got the best of the fight. Magnussen has been arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Mrs. Peckham has been bound over to keep the peace.

The bulldog has been subpoenaed to appear in court. Deputy Constable Jack Robinson went to serve the papers on the dog.

The dog said: "Bow-wow" and looked serious.

Only one person can handle the vicious brute.

Robinson called on the City Prosecutor today to get legal advice as to how to get the dog in court.

A SMOOTH SWINDLER

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—B. H. Morse, representing himself as "district agent of the Alaska-Klondike Improvement and Mining Company," was arrested at his office here today on information furnished the local police by Mrs. Richard P. Bland, widow of the late Congressman. The police secured Morse's books, which, according to Chief of Police Hayes, prove him to be a clever swindler, whose operations have covered every part of the country. Morse's plan, it appears, was to collect from the widows of prominent men lately deceased, whom he always represented had some time since bought certain mining stock of him, and left a small balance unpaid. The "balance" generally ranging from $8 to $12, appears to have been paid without question. A long list of Morse's victims was discovered among his books. Among them are the widows of Judge S. Emery of Lawrence, Kas.; L. G. Hastings, Wichita; C. G. Foster, Topeka, and Fred Schuler, St. Joseph, Mo.

TRUCKEE, Cal., July 7.—Word has been received from Summit Soda Springs that Flora L. Heath, the 7-year-old daughter of F. L. Heath, died on Wednesday from the effects of eating manzanita berries.

A MINISTER'S MISTAKE

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began; "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected and after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and found on the other side the matter intended for the reading

CITY TREASURER WANTS TO SEE OFFICIALS' WARRANTS.

City Treasurer Gilpin advises all city employes who hold salary warrants to consult with him before allowing the same to be shaved at a heavy discount. He has made a computation of how many warrants he will be able to pay from the several funds, and the result of that computation is appended. Employes by comparing the number of their warrants with the numbers given below will be able to ascertain where they stand.

From the General Fund, the Treasurer will be able to pay warrants up to and including No. 1849 against this fund warrants up to 1923 being registered. The Salary Fund will satisfy warrants up to No. 602, which will leave out one warrant; the Street Fund up to No. 1837, the Fire Fund up to No. 1433 and the Park Fund up to No. 122. There is a surplus in the high school, police, police and fire telegraph. Among these in June there was an apportionment of $13,122.12. The total delinquent taxes of last year was $4,263.46.

READY FOR BOERS.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

LONDON, July 7.—In the House of Commons today Sir William Campbell-Bannerman (Liberal leader in the House) asked the Government leader, A. J. Balfour, if he had any statement to make on the apparently official communication published in the Times today giving the names of a number of officers said to have been ordered to proceed to South Africa for the purpose of organizing the residents as well as the police and local forces at various points on the frontier.

Mr. Balfour replied that he was not aware that it was an official communication. He added that no contingency had yet arisen which, in the opinion of the Government, necessitates a material increase in the forces now in South Africa.

He added: "We, however, think it necessary, under the existing circumstances, to take such steps as may bring the present force up to the proper standard of efficiency and mobility. The War Office would have been extraordinarily wanting in its most obvious duties if it was not prepared for any emergency."

THE IDAHO TRIALS.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 7.—Today the defense in the Corcoran case filed a motion for a continuance of the case until next term, alleging that under martial law a fair trial could not be secured; that the jurors summoned to try Corcoran were biased against Corcoran, etc. These allegations are backed up by numerous affidavits. Attorney Robertson for the defense argued that a trial by civil law was impossible while martial law prevailed.

Hawley, in reply, took the ground that were the grounds alleged by the defendants true, his proper course would be a motion for a change of venue.

The presiding Judge denied the motion for a continuance. The defense filed a formal challenge to the panel summoned, on account of the biased report on the part of the elisor. The court denied the challenge. Attorney Reddy asked for an exception, asking to be allowed to call Sutherland to the stand to prove the ground for the challenge. After considerable explanation, the court allowed Sutherland to be called.

SHAMROCK'S TRIAL.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

SOUTHAMPTON, July 7.—Interest in the Shamrock's trial has been greatly increased by the authenticated report that Emperor William is sending his yacht Meteor to participate in the trials expected to take place early next week.

Sir Thomas Lipton said in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press this afternoon: "The Shamrock is progressing as fast as possible, but there is lots to be done yet. We may be able to stretch her sails tomorrow evening, and she should be quite ready Tuesday or Wednesday, but we are not going to unduly hurry or leave Southampton precipitately."

The trials will be over a measured course. If the Shamrock takes a spin tomorrow she will be escorted by the Erin, with a distinguished party, and by the Iverna. Mr. Jameson is expected here tonight.

The carriage of a buzz-saw doesn't move very fast, but if a man stays on it long enough he will presently be sawn asunder. The process of gradual bodily decline and loss of energy which leads finally to consumption is not always very rapid, but if it isn't stopped it will presently begin to saw its way into the most vital part of the body, the lungs. There would be very little consumption if every family would keep Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house, and use it whenever feeling "out of sorts." It keeps the entire body in such a high condition of health and forcefulness that wasting diseases have no chance to get a foot-hold. A teaspoonful or two before meals, in a little water, gives the digestive organism power to assimilate the blood-making, nerve-toning, strength-building properties of the food.

It enables the liver and excretory system to clear the circulation of bilious poisons and remove all waste matter from the body. It replaces worn out tissue with hard muscular flesh, and changes weakness and debility into active power and nerve force.

The originator of this great "Discovery." R. V. Pierce, M. D., is chief consulting physician to the great Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., at the head of a staff of nearly a score of eminent associate physicians and surgeons. He has acquired, in his over thirty years of active practice, a reputation second to no living physician in the treatment of obstinate, chronic diseases. His prescriptions must not be confounded with the numerous "boom" remedies, "extracts," "compounds," and "sarsaparillas," which a profit-seeking druggist is often ready to urge as a substitute. Dr. Pierce's medicines are the product of wide experience and deep study. Any one may consult him by mail free of charge.

NO CONSOLIDATION.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—A prominent official close to President A. J. Cassett of the Pennsylvania Railroad today denied the published statement that the Pennsylvania and the New York Central Railway had entered a compact by which the two systems had practically become one.

To a reporter of the Associated Press he said:

"There has never been any thought of consolidating the two systems. The New York Central is practically a family railroad, owned by the Vanderbilts, while there are thirty thousand stockholders in the Pennsylvania road. The relations of the two companies are pleasant, but as the Pennsylvania Railroad is competing with the New York Central for traffic, the interests of the two roads are not compatible, and consequently consolidation or amalgamation would be out of the question."

The official denied the statement that Mr. Vanderbilt is the largest stockholder in the Pennsylvania Railroad.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, July 7.—A most unusual and painful accident happened to Freddie, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Block, at their home, corner of Walnut street and Clinton avenue, last night. The child, while playing on the roof of a shed, rolled down the incline and, in falling to the ground, struck on the point of a picket in a fence in the rear of the shed. The sharp point entered the cheek below the bone and came out near the eye. The boy clutched the picket, and thus suspended himself for a time when he fell exhausted to the ground, the picket tearing a ghastly hole through the cheek. The little fellow was carried in the house, wher his injuries were dressed by Dr. J. N. Young.

POISONED BREAD.

The family of A. M. Roebke has just recovered from a severe attack of poisoning which attacked father, mother and son Alex in a manner which at first it was thought would result fatally. They were stricken a few days ago, after having eaten of rye bread at breakfast. The father had eaten heartily of the bread, and was attacked with stomachic cramps which caused him to fall and writhe with pain upon the floor. Later, Mrs. Roebke and the son were similarly affected, though their suffering was not so intense. Dr. H. M. Pond was called and, after some time, succeeded in relieving the pain of the sufferers. Mr. Roebke made inquiry as to the cause of the poisoning, and discovered that the baker who made the bread had mixed the dough in a copper pan and had allowed it to remain in it longer than usual. It is thought that in this manner the mixture absorbed some of the poison which is generally supposed to be in copper when subjected to certain influences.

ALLEGED CRUELTY.

The charge of cruelty to animals has been placed against Farmer Sanford, a well known business man of this city at the instance of G. G. Kennedy, agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Sanford has been arrested on a warrant sworn out in Recorder St. Sure's office, and has given bail in the sum of $20. It is alleged that Ed Hickey, a boy in the employ of Sanford drove a horse belonging to Sanford on Monday last until the animal dropped in the street from exhaustion.

A FIRE AT MUNRO'S.

There was a lively blaze last night at 7 o'clock in a shed in the rear of Munro's furniture store, 1517-1519 Park street. The timber was dry and burned with great rapidity, threatening the entire establishment. The flames, however, were finally subdued, only a small loss being sustained which was covered by insurance.

ARM BROKEN A WEEK.

Dr. J. N. Young yesterday set the broken arm of the 7-year-old son of Police Officer Moebus. The fracture was not discovered until yesterday, although it had taken place several days before. It was occasioned by the boy falling in the back yard of the residence. He played around as usual until yesterday, when the point of the splintered bone began to appear through the flesh, when the doctor was called in.

BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, July 7.—The Town Trustees have reconsidered their intention to abandon the plans for a municipal water supply. When the San Pablo wells failed to give a satisfactory supply at the test a couple of months ago after an expenditure of about $2,000 the Board decided that the experiments were too costly and concluded to abandon the idea. Of late, however, engineers have examined the wells and reported to the Trustees that in their estimation the wells are all right and that the fault of the failure is attributable to poor pumps. Consequently another attempt will be made and the Trustees will pay the cost out of their own pocket. The test will be made some time this month.

TOWN FUNDS.

The balances in the various municipal funds are as follows: General fund, $8,101.20; street fund, $1,329.14; library fund, $1,707.21; sewer bond fund, $2,179.35; electric light fund, $2,747.59; school bond fund, $3,243.64; Bancroft way opening fund, $265.03; Mabel street opening fund, $55.39; Harmon street opening fund, $74.74; Calais street opening fund, $21.84; Grove street opening fund, $111.55; Woolsey street opening fund, $73.18. Total balances, $20,079.20.

FIRE COMPANY OFFICERS.

The Peralta Fire Company has installed the following officers: President, T. C. Rowe; vice president, J. E. Brothers; secretary, George Frame; financial secretary, C. Haines; treasurer, D. S. Adams; foreman, W. E. Brothers; assistants, Geo. Haggerty, E. Gobel.

THE LICENSE ORDINANCE.

The last of the cherry crop has been shipped. The picking of cots will begin very soon, as the season promises to be earlier than usual.

The little dancing party given by the young ladies of Niles in the Tyson barn, was quite a success. Fully forty young people from different parts of the township were present and danced until 1 o'clock. Cake, sandwiches, and lemonade were served during the evening.

Katie Nunes, who with her family has been a resident of Niles for three or four years, died June 20th, at her home, after an illness of many months. She was a pleasant, happy, uncomplaining sufferer, and had won many friends among her school-mates, and older companions. She was born April 26, 1882, and was therefore seventeen years old. The funeral services were held from the house, Rev. E. D. Hale officiating, and Father Governo of Centerville attending at the interfent which was at Centerville.

HAYWARDS.

HAYWARDS, July 7.—The appointment of Marshal Ramage to the position of County License Collector has caused some commotion among a number of citizens who would like to be at the head of local police affairs; but unless Mr. Ramage changes his plans there will be no vacancy so far as he is concerned. The proposition is for the Marshal to hold on to his job until his term expires. Meantime a deputy will be appointed to conduct the affairs of the office of Marshal while Ramage is attending to his duties as License Collector.

JUSTICE PIMENTAL'S VACATION.

Justice Pimental has been in bad health for some time, and will soon go to Half Moon Bay for a vacation. During his absence his court will be conducted by Justice Quinn of San Leandro.

METHODIST SERVICES.

Pending the erection of the new Methodist Church services will be held in the annex.

ODD FELLOWS' INSTALLATION.

Sycamore Lodge, No. 129, I. O. O. F., will install its recently elected officers next Monday evening.

LETTER LIST.

Letters are at the Postoffice for W. R. Allen, Mrs. Bernell, Prof. N. Eldron, Miss J. Mullery, Hans Peterson, P. O. Tillman.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EVERETT.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Margaret Everett took place this afternoon. The interment was in Odd Fellows' Cemetery, San Francisco.

PLEASANTON.

PLEASANTON, July 7.—During the past week the town has been over run with applicants for the position of principal of our public school. It was a common thing to see our school trustees dodging about the corners and buildings in order to get away from many who were known to be looking for them in order to give their little address and plea for the place. Not only those who visited the board, and came near causing each member to look for a physician afterward to find if all limbs and joints were still sound, will be considered at the meeting today, but many applications with long and tiresome references have been received by mail.

The business men of Pleasanton do not receive with favor the proposition to impose a license tax on all branches of business as embodied in the ordinance which was reported from the Ordinance Committee at the last meeting of the Board of Town Trustees.

A counter proposition, signed by resident property owners, will be presented to the Board at its next meeting, which will at once protest against the proposed license, and recommend the calling of an election at which shall be submitted the question of bonding the town for a sum sufficient to put in a water plant capable of affording protection against fire, and for other purposes.—Pleasanton Times.

FRIDAY.......................JULY 7, 1899

A coal combination is on the tapis. Now watch its promoters burn up the public's money.

Tulare county has produced a horse that eats beans. Where are all those Boston dime museum managers? They are missing the opportunity to make a fortune.

A sergeant of police has come out of the Klondike with $35,000 in gold dust. He must have been in charge of the lock-up where they corraled the drunken miners.

Ex-Governor Hogg of Texas says that the Democrats should go into the approaching national fight under the leadership of William J. Bryan. No objections on the part of the Republicans. We have had "Billy" in the ring once before, and found his solar plexus easily enough. It will be a veritable walk-over next time.

Poisoning by mail has become quite a popular crime since Mrs. Botkin set the fashion, scarcely a week passing without something in that line being reported. It is a method that just suits the coward, for in most ways there is less personal danger attached to it than stabbing a man in the back or shooting at him from ambush.

There is one firm believer in the future of the California wine industry, as Henry Crocker has shown by his offer to take all the grapes grown in the State during the next seven years at a rate of $14 per ton. That settles the question of whether or not there is any money in the business for the ranchers, and will make the croakers who have been lamenting the status of the local wine business hunt their holes.

THE LAND WE LIVE IN.

The wondrous development of the California oil fields is once more attracting the attention of the rest of the country to this State, and those who have always regarded the Golden West as a veritable treasure land are more impressed now with the fact than ever. Gold mines richer than the world ever saw before, wheat fields vaster in many instances than European principalities, orange groves compared with which the far-famed products of the Mediterranean lose their luster, orchards bearing a greater and richer variety of fruits than any other cultivated section of the universe, forests of redwood representing hundreds of millions of dollars, oil fields that promise to vie with any yet tapped by man—all of these treasures have in quick succession been developed and poured forth upon the lap of the world in the fifty brief years of our history.

When to this galaxy of attractions is added our incomparable climate and harbor-dotted coast line, washed by the most peaceful of all the oceans, we can well look around upon the rest of creation and ask if there is anything to compare with the land in which we live. Our resources, too, are not confined merely to productions that represent so much money, for we possess everything that nature can furnish for the enrichment and enjoyment of life. There is no scenery in the world grander or more impressive than that of the Yosemite valley, while in our lake district we possess springs that surpass the famous resorts of the Old World. France for many years boasted that of all the waters she alone had claim to a champagne-like spring such as bubbles forth at her town of Vichy, but she can do so no longer, for we possess its very counterpart in our own State. Then there are our iron, magnesia, soda, apollinaris and the many other waters of the coast counties, that entire part of the State teeming with medicinal springs, the very rivers and creeks showing traces of the mineral nature of the section.

If we can only present all these resources and attractions at the Paris fair in a manner that will do justice to them, the rest of the world cannot but pay us homage as the most remarkable country the sun has ever shone upon. Those of our citizens who have not traveled, and hence have had no opportunities of comparison, cannot fully appreciate the magnificent empire in which they live or how well they have been endowed by nature in the distribution of favors that mean wealth and prosperity if proper advantages are taken of them.

"The Czar of Russia won't celebrate the Fourth this year."

"Why?"

"Because it's only his second or third, and a girl at that."—Chicago Times-Herald.

THE ROUNDER.

"Do you know Journalist Stievater, one of the Oakland correspondents of the Call?" said Commodore Curbstone, as he gracefully accepted a Filipino cigar from that popular young journalist Colonel Sheridan of the Bulletin. "You know Stievater has just been married and has gone to keeping house. Steve has been somewhat of a Bohemian in his time, and he doesn't know much about running a house. Yesterday Mrs. Stievater remarked: 'I guess we will have pork and apple sauce for dinner tonight. Will you make the purchase?' Steve was delighted to get down to real home living. Arriving at the butcher shop Steve said: 'Fifty cents' worth of pork and apple sauce, please.' The butcher filled the order and handed a bundle to the reporter. Steve waited in silence. 'Well?' said the butcher. 'Where's the apple sauce?' said Steve. And the butcher drew a knife and Steve hurried away. When he got home he found out why the butcher drew a knife. And this is a true story of how Journalist Stevater began housekeeping."

✣ ✣ ✣ ✣

"I met Supervisor John H. Mitchell, that handsome, buxom official," said Herr Sis-Marchen-Mich-Lachen. "What a stylish man he is nowadays! Well, it was by the Oakland Bank of Savings yesterday. I had stopped the Supervisor, and, like a dealer in hand-me-down garments, was feeling of the goods in his suit. I spied two cigars in his upper vest pocket and was told by him to help myself. I took the best looking one. 'I don't want to stand you up,' said I, 'here, take this back.' 'No,' he answered, 'keep it; I never smoke.'

"I entered Scharman's and was about to light the weed when the Jewish blood in me prompted me to ask the watchful clerk: 'This is a La Estrella cigar, according to the band. What is the price?' 'Oh, that's a good cigar. Three for a quarter.' On the street, after several puffs, I hove the 'smoker' away. I have my opinion of some of Supervisor Mitchell's friends."

✣ ✣ ✣ ✣

"Yesterday I had a chat on Washington street with an Eleventh street merchant," said Monsieur Qui-Dit. "To him I remarked: 'Why don't you advertise in the Oakland Tribune? You're complaining of lack of customers.' To which he replied: 'I guess I am too lazy.'"

✣ ✣ ✣ ✣

Peter Baker has been a grocer on Broadway, near Sixth street, for over twenty years. Probably he is the oldest merchant in that line in Oakland. Said he to Senor Muchacho-Viejo: 'My, how this town has grown since I began doing business here. My store used to be pretty conspicuous, I thought." Peter, all the same, is one of Oakland's foremost men. Many a Grand Jury has had him for foreman, and no mortal has within him more of the milk of human kindness.

✣ ✣ ✣ ✣

"On Fourteenth street yesterday," said Monsieur Qui-Dit, "I met F. R. Porter, who was publisher for twelve years of the Echoes, an Oakland weekly, and who strangled that periodical early in 1898. Said he: 'Echoes is certainly immortal, for I am constantly getting mail addressed to it. Here is a postal card, just received, and superscribed 'Editor Echoes'; it will interest Oakland Tribune readers'":

"Houston, Tex., June 29th, 1899.

"Dear Sir: We are looking for the heirs of Patrick Burton O'Connor, who we have reason to believe went to your State in '49. Any information will be received with thanks by yours truly,

"Box 523." "HENRY MALMGREN.

"Sorry I am not the sole heir," said Monsieur Qui-Dit.

THE ROUNDER.

HONOR TO SOCIETY

WHAT HAS OAKLAND SOCIETY DONE FOR CHARITY?—MRS. ALBERT BROWN.

Mrs. Albert Brown of 1337 Alice street is well known for her works of charity. She is a member of the Fabiola Hospital Association, the West Oakland Free Kindergarten, the Associated Charities and several similar organizations. Her connection with these institutions has given ample opportunity for relief work in all parts of the city, an opportunity which has not been neglected. In addition to the work of the associations to which she belongs, Mrs. Brown always has a number of cases which she attends to personally.

WOMEN WHO WORK

MISS AGNES FARLEY, CLOAKMAKER.

Miss Agnes Farley is employed as cloak-maker at the Palace Cloak Store on Washington street. She has held the position for several years and is considered one of the best cutters and fitters in the city. Her work always bears the stamp of neatness and has a finish and tone to it. Miss Farley is pleased with her position, and is glad that she has a calling which enables her to provide for her own support. She has given entire satisfaction to her employers.

STREET CAR MEN.

WILLARD JONES, HAYWARDS LINE.

Willard Jones, one of the handsome and pleasant motormen of the Oakland, San Leandro and Haywards line, has been a resident of the State for about six years. He is one of a number of street railway men who readily found employment here almost the moment they struck the city and who have kept it ever since. Mr. Jones formerly resided in Pueblo, Col., and would rather live on the wind of the bay and the aroma of the flowers of Oakland than to again encounter the wintry blasts of the Centennial State.

FOR POLICEMEN.

E. J. G, HAHN, PATROLMAN.

Policeman E. J. G. Hahn has attained to his thirty-fifth year, and, though he has been on the force only about two years, he has conducted himself in a manner to attract the attention of his superiors. He has done special work for the department—work which could not have been done by the regular patrolmen on the beat on which he was specially detailed to duty. He is married and the head of a happy family.

RYHMES OF THE DAY.

Another Sufferer:—
They sigh for the man with the hoe,
Who patiently delves in the soil;
But what is the mild sort of woe
To that of the man with a boil?
—Ex.

A PLEA.

Oh, you who strive with ore and volts,
You men of strange inventions,
To do without the use of colts
Or nags retired on pensions,

Make all the legless things you can
To benefit the human,
And make worth while the little span
That's given man and woman.

But here I ask (I live by wage)
That you will not grow reckless,
And slip in on us such an age
That henceforth shall be checkless!
—Syracuse Herald.

THE DISAPPOINTED MAIDEN.

She answered no;
She stroked his head;
"Be brave, for oh,
You know," she said,
"That even though
We may not wed,
We still—ah yes!—we still may be
Good friends and true;
Your smile will still be sweet to me,
E'en when some other shares with you
The noble love you nobly lay
At my disposal here today."

He sighed awhile,
And then forgot;
She saw him smile,
And grieved a lot.
She had not found that, after all,
Love for him loitered in her heart;
There was no word she would recall;
She had not played a hasty part;
But he was brave; he did not go
Unto the dogs nor anywhere,
And she was deeply hurt, although
She had implored him not to care.
—Chicago Times-Herald.

"Many a couple," said the Cornfed Philosopher, "marry in haste and repent in poverty."—Indianapolis Journal.

REMARKABLE STORY TOLD OF A MAN WHO NEARLY LOST HIS LIFE.

By HENRY A. NEWBERRY.

There is a man living in San Francisco who once had a hairs-breadth escape from instant death that, so far as the writer knows, is absolutely unique. Charles Richardson is his name, and he is an engineer on a tug. A few years ago Mr. Richardson was employed as engineer and fireman in a stave mill at Coos Bay, on the coast of Oregon. The mill stood on the beach, and for several hundred feet out in the bay the water was about two feet deep, with a thick layer of mud underneath. One day the boiler exploded and tore out the whole side of the mill.

So great was the force of the explosion that the boiler was broken squarely in two, and as the two sections rose in the air they crossed each other's orbit like a pair of runaway comets and landed fully 300 feet away from the mill. Richardson was standing within a few feet of the boiler when the upheaval came, and as the side of the mill sailed away into space he shot up into the air after it, described a graceful parabolic curve and landed in a sitting posture in two feet of water and mud, fully 200 feet out in the bay.

Incredible as it may seem, Richardson was not killed nor even dangerously injured, though scalded by steam and so badly shaken up in his descent on the tide flat that he was obliged to keep his bed for a month. When the other employes of the mill, who were working at some distance from the boiler when it blew up, reached the scene of the explosion everyone, of course, thought the unfortunate engineer had been blown to atoms. Just then vigorous cries for help were heard, coming from where no one could make out for a few moments. Finally one of the astonished employes discovered the engineer embedded in mud up to his waist, from which he was promptly rescued and taken to his home.

Another astounding feature of this freak accident was the marvelous escape of a blacksmith who was working in a corner of the room that contained the boiler. The explosion tore out everything within a foot of the blacksmith and left him standing on a little platform—an island in the wreck and ruin of the mill. Drenched with the cold water that had caused the explosion and covered with ashes from head to foot, the amazed blacksmith stood with hammer poised in air, his mouth wide open and his eyes sticking out of his grimy visage like fried eggs in a tar bucket. He presented so ludicrous a picture of consternation and bewilderment that despite the imagined horrors of the explosion the rescuers burst into roars of laughter—in which the blacksmith finally joined rather sheepishly—on beholding him standing like a modern Ajax defying the lightning and having his bluff called.

The engineer was given to profanity, and it was his habit, before the explosion, to inquire jocosely of his fellow workmen, "How would you like to go to h— on a boiler plate?" But never after he returned to work in the new mill was he heard to ask that question. The query seemed somehow to have lost its humor so far as he was concerned.

OUR STREETS SHOULD NOT NOW BE FORGOTTEN

By THE EDITOR.

Superintendent of Streets Miller has asked for the appropriation of the round sum of $50,000 for the proper improvement of certain of the city's leading thoroughfares—East Fourteenth street, San Pablo avenue and Telegraph avenue.

There is reason in this request. On general principles, it may be said that there is no department of public work more important than the suitable care of a city's streets. The character and condition of its highways are the most outward and visible signs by which the character of a city and the quality of its administration are known. Its streets are the standing invitation which any city extends to persons from a distance to visit it and to renew their visits, and having done so, to come and take up their permanent abode and business in it.

The proper care and improvement of its streets, is one of those general improvements in any city that, up to a certain point at least, must take precedence of very many desirable and rightful local improvements.

Our City Council and other officials at the present moment have pressing upon them a great many contending claims, probably all of them just and reasonable. The aggregate of these is unquestionably greatly in excess of the expenditure which the city this year will be able to meet out of the moderate tax levy to which the City Council will feel itself, both by the law and by public opinion, restrained. Under this condition of things it is especially important that those officials who have the repute and the right conduct of the community in their hands shall not yield to any temptation to skimp the streets. In taking care of the streets with a duly liberal hand, the authorities will be consulting the first and best interests of every portion of the community at large.

A WORD WITH THE PEOPLE WHO DEMAND IMPROVEMENTS.

By THE EDITOR.

With the opening of the new fiscal year, comes the demand on all sides for public improvements. All sections of Oakland, in the present stage of the city's development, are like coursers in leash, chafing and tugging and ready to go ahead. From Golden Gate, Alden, East Oakland and West Oakland alike come the claims and requirements and expectations for allowances from the general funds for the creation or the inauguration of enterprises that are deemed essential to the welfare and progress of these respective sections of the city.

While these expectations are natural and not in themselves unreasonable, but rather, on the contrary, creditable to our people, they should in reason be modified by certain unavoidable and undeniable considerations.

With a light tax levy it will be impossible for the city's officials to meet all of these expectations and to grant all of the desirable improvements that are called for.

With the tax levy to be fixed by the present City Council and with such a rate as this body will feel itself constrained by public opinion to set, it is plain that no large public improvements in any quarter of the city can be undertaken. Even small ones will have to be treated carefully.

That the Council will do the best it can, under the circumstances, by all of the several ambitious sections of the city may be safely assumed. It will become these different sections and their inhabitants, therefore, to recognize the situation and to moderate their claims for the time being, in order to adapt them to the peculiar situation in which the city is placed.

Let them be patient and hold their natural and creditable public spirit in check. Let the minimum and not the maximum requirements of each portion of the city be presented to the Council for its consideration.

Let each section feel assured that its just claims will receive from the City Council and the city's officials the utmost consideration that justice to the rest and to the condition of the city at large and its finances will allow.

TWO QUEER TALES FROM LIVERMORE AND HAYWARDS

Snake Bite Temperance

Joseph Nunan, a 14-year-old boy living at Sanchez and Twenty-first streets, San Francisco, has reason to remember the Haywards Fourth of July celebration as long as he lives—which, indeed, may not be a very long period, judging from his present condition. He and several companions attended the Haywards celebration, and stayed so late that they missed the last train for home. Having no money to pay for a bed, young Nunan went to sleep in a hay field. During the night he was bitten in the face by a snake, and though the bite gave him a bad scare at the time, he did not think the wound was serious, after he got over his first fright, as he felt no pain.

Wednesday morning he took an early train for home. By evening, however, his face had swollen frightfully, and there was a large eruption on his head. His eyes were covered by the swelling so that he could not see, and he was in intense pain. A physician lanced the swelling and diagnosed the case as one of blood poisoning caused by the snake's bite. He declared the boy was in a very critical condition and may lose his life.

AT LIVERMORE.

"Tall men, sun-crowned, who stand above the throng in public duty and in private thinking" are not the only jewels in Livermore's crown. The pretty valley town also boasts of Fourth of July celebrations that cheer but not inebriate. Notwithstanding the manifold temptations of thirsty souls inherent in the hilarity and good-fellowship of last Tuesday's festivities, not a single tipsy person was locked up in the town jail. The big crowd apparently quenched its patriotic fires in nothing stronger than soda water and lemonade, and no vociferous jags were in evidence.

SPICE.

"Popper, can't we have the Fourth of July now instead of waiting for it?" asked the magazine editor's little boy.

"Every one would laugh at us," replied the father, "if we were to do anything so childish. And, besides, I am too busy getting out the Christmas number for the third week in November to have time to help you."—Indianapolis Journal.

Munsey's Magazine for June has printed a letter which Paderewski wrote to a "prominent society woman" of Chicago in answer to a request for a lock of hair. The great pianist complied with the request, but it may be doubted if the receiver of the lock of hair was quite satisfied after all. The letter well tells the rest of the story. It was written by Paderewski's secretary from dictation, and is as follows:

"Dear Madame:—M. Paderewski directs me to say that it affords him much pleasure to comply with your request. You fail to specify whose hair you desire, and to avoid error he has secured a sample each of the staff en voyage—to wit, his manager, his secretary, his valet, his two cooks and his waiter, together with small portions from a cat and from a mattress belonging to M. Pullman, proprietaire of the coach de luxe which we occupy. I have the honor to be your obedient servant." (Letter Unsigned.)

GOLDEN GATE IMPROVERS.

A regular meeting of the Golden Gate Improvement Club was held last night.

The committee having in charge the matter of removing the old railroad ties on San Pablo avenue was granted two months further time, as it is desired to learn what the company intends to do.

The station committee was also granted further time.

On motion of Mr. Hunt seconded by J. T. Armstrong, Johnson Young was recommended for appointment as care taker of the streets and sidewalks of Golden Gate.

A JOLLY CAMPING PARTY.

Ho! ho! ho! Don't you know
We are! we are! Camp Tally-ho!

This has been ringing out cheerily through the valley ever since the arrival last Saturday of this Alameda and Oakland camping party. It is under the able leadership of George E. Bew. There are seventeen jolly souls in this delightful camp. It is situated on the bank of the Merced at the base of Glacier Point.

Camp Tally-ho consists of the following: George Bew and his mother, Mrs. George H. Bew, Misses Mae and Pansy Perkins, daughters of Senator Perkins, Mrs. Carl Bruntsch and daughter, Miss Gretchen Bruntsch, Colonel J. J. Tobin, Mrs. Tobin and daughters, Misses Nellie and Edith Sullivan, Hon. J. J. R. Peel, cousin of Lord Peel, ex-Speaker of the House of Commons and descendant of the great British statesman, Sir Robert Peel, Miss May Bramhall, Miss Anna Kruger, Messrs. Sidney Haslett, W. Whiley, Fred Russ and Roland Young.

All the party are united in praise of their transportation manager, Mr. Billy Williams, who handled the lines of his team en route with the grace and deftness of a Bonner.

Their cook, Ah Wing, is an accomplished chef, who expects a similar position at the Hoffman House when he terminates his present engagement.

In their elegant five-seated tally-ho coach they have been making the tour of the valley, cheered by the melodious strains of the accordeon in the aristocratic hands of Sid Haslett. For the first time in the history of the Yosemite its visitors have been treated to exhibitions of the wonderful powers of the Edison Grammaphone gracefully handled by Miss Mae Perkins. Night after night around their campfire the voices of this gay and festive party can be heard ringing out in joyful musical strains, disproving thus the allegation that the cities they hail from are of the the somniferous order. They will remain with us until Monday, June 26, and depart by the Wawona route, taking in the Mariposa Big Trees—having come by the Big Oak Flat route, their excursion lasting about a month.—Yosemite Valley publication.

RAIN FALLS ON THE JUST.

Endeavorers Drenched in "Quiet Hour" Services.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DETROIT, July 7.—Soon after the break of day the Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor gathered in the Hotel Cadillac to discuss several matters left undetermined at Wednesday's meeting. The most important of these was the protest from the Ministerial Alliance of Toledo against the opening of the gates of the Ohio Centennial on Sunday. Contrary to the expressed wishes of the Toledo representatives who were present, a general resolution was authorized, protesting in the name of the Christian Endeavor Society, against the opening of any exposition or fair on the Sabbath. Another resolution was announced protesting against the seating of Congressman-elect Roberts of Utah. Both resolutions will be submitted to the general convention for adoption.

The trustees consumed some time in the discussion of matters concerning the 1900 convention at London, and the methods and rates of ocean transportation, but adjourned without definite action.

There is understood to be a plan under consideration for the chartering of several large steamships to carry the American delegates to England. Secretary Baer says the plan is to make a straight fare for all parts of the ship, and have the cabins and steerage fitted up as nearly as possible on an equality with the first cabin state rooms, and also to allow all passengers the upper deck and provide them with all possible conveniences.

WAS GOOD THING.

Very Spicy Answer Filed in a Parnership Contest.

In her answer to the complaint of Albert Victors, Albertine Schroeder alleges that their business troubles arose from the fact that her nephew wanted her to be a "good thing."

A few days ago Victors brought suit to have the partnership between them dissolved on the ground that they had quarreled and that the defendant had threatened to sell her interest in the business to a stranger.

The defendant denies that their dissentions have become such that they can no longer act as business partners. She declares that the only dissention existing was brought about by defendants refusal to be a "good thing." She was paying Victor $100 a month to manage the business and also paid half his brother-in-law's salary. When the latter's salary was increased to $100 a month, "and defendant was expected to gather together as best she could $100 every month in gold and carry the same to him on a silver platter," the defendant objected.

Defendant further alleges "that this honorable court cannot appoint a receiver to take charge of said business too soon for her, and wind up the business of said copartnership."

BURNING WORDS FROM GEO. D. METCALF--POINTERS.

Wake Up Improve

George D. Metcalf has just returned from a five weeks' tour in the East, whither he went to place his son in a preparatory school for the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He has been a close observer of the Eastern cities and makes some excellent suggestions to Oakland founded on his recent observations. He says:

"The most common thought that comes to a resident of Oakland who appreciates Oakland and endeavors to compare it with Eastern cities of the same size or smaller is that Oakland is beyond all question far richer in natural advantages than any of them, but is poverty stricken in what her inhabitants have done for her.

"We need boulevards—not makeshifts, but paved with vitrified brick or substantial asphalt. We should have beautiful shade trees lining the streets and boulevards.

"We should have parks with trees and green sward. The lake should be made (as anywhere else it would be made) an attractive water park. More care and intelligent judgment should be exercised in the building of private residences and in making the yards and gardens attractive to the eye. We should have attractive modern hotels.

"Oakland as a city, from location and surroundings, ought to be par excellence the most beautiful in the country, but as a matter of fact it is twenty-five years behind the times and is inferior to many Eastern cities of one-half its population in all those things that go to make an attractive, progressive, live place.

"We have all the natural advantages here, but are woefully lacking in the progressive spirit of the age. What Oakland needs more than anything else is that the people should awaken not only to a proper sense and just appreciation of what they have, but to the possibilities in perfecting what they have."

PEACE CONFERENCE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

THE HAGUE, July 7.—The third committee sitting this morning at the Hus Ten Bosch discussed the scheme for the mediation and arbitration drawn up by the Comite d'Examen. Many of the delegates have only been acquainted with the proposal since yesterday, and they have not had time to consult their governments. Consequently it has been decided that when the committee adjourns today it will be until Friday, July 14, in order to allow the delegates a week in which to consult their governments and receive final instructions. The scheme is headed "Draft of convention for the pacific settlement of international conflicts." The first part deals with the maintenance of general peace; the second part with arbitration.

The reporter of the convention explained lengthily the motives which inspired the draftin gcommittee in elaborating the scheme. M. Bourgeois, head of the French delegation, thanked the reporter in warm terms, and congratulated him upon his remarkable exposition. The sitting was then adjourned until July 17th, and not Friday next, as previously cabled.

The review of the troops this morning was attended by the military delegates to the conference, who were specially invited to be present.

A. L. STONE GIVES IDEAS TO THE OAKLAND MERCHANTS.

Own Your Ships
Points for Progress

A. L. Stone, one of Oakland's enterprising business men, has just returned from a four weeks' business trip through the lumbering districts of the Northwest. One of the principal places visited by Mr. Stone was Portland, Ore. He was very much impressed with the manner in which the merchants of that city go about controlling the trade with the coast ports. They successfully shut off competition from San Francisco by chartering their own vessels and steamers which carry the freight from these smaller ports to Portland and there loading with the supplies which these smaller places consume.

"There is no reason," said Mr. Stone, "why Oakland merchants should not control the trade of those ports whose products are sold in Oakland. This can be done if the Oakland people will take the necessary steps to own or control its shipping. The vessels bringing cargoes to this port are owned in San Francisco. If we buy a cargo of lumber we have to go to San Francisco to charter a vessel.

"A small amount of energy and the expenditure of a little money would soon result in the owning of vessels in Oakland. Then these vessels would load here, and we would soon be controlling the trade with those small coast ports whose products we buy. There is a good field here if the Oakland merchants will but grasp the situation. Oakland can never become a great commercial center unless she broadens out, and this is an excellent opportunity for her to do so.

"The merchants of San Francisco have an arrangement whereby they divide the interest in vessels into sixteenths. In this way they control the shipping. At this time their vessels are paying from 20 to 50 per cent on their investments, aside from the benefits derived from their control of the trade.

"In San Francisco and all other ports they are building a great many vessels. In Oakland they are building a few, but they are not for Oakland men."

FLOODS IN KANSAS.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 7.—A special to the Star from Independence, Kas., says:

Another heavy rain fell all last night and this morning over this section, and the streams have begun to rise again. Many of them were already bank full, and this rain will put them out of their banks and do immense damage. Several washouts are reported along the line of the Santa Fe. The Chicago, Kansas & Western train was four hours late, and the Southern Kansas passenger from Kansas City is not expected today. Several miles of track beyond Chanute is under water, and a couple of washouts are reported as a result of the Neosho overflow.

ABRAHAMSON BROS,' ANNUAL JULY CLEARANCE SALE

POLE GIVEN CITY.

Fourth of July Committee Winds Up its Business.

The Citizens' Fourth of July Committee met last evening and closed up its business. That no question as to the ownership of the pole might arise, resolutions were adopted formally presenting the pole to the city as a perpetual gift.

A resolution was also adopted to have a detailed statement of receipts and expenditures in connection with contributions and the expenses of the celebration published in the daily papers.

It was decided to spend any surplus remaining after all bills had been paid in the erection of an iron fence about the flag pole. There was some talk about buying the big guns but as the owner asks $1,000 for them it was thought better to wait until after the war, when the government would have any number of discarded cannons for sale cheap.

THEY ARE WORKING IN THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD.

Edited by MISS GRACE EDSON, Chairman of the County Christian Endeavor Committee.

E. C. Lyon has appointed the following Program Committee for the next quarterly convention, to be held in Elmhurst Friday afternoon and evening, August 11th: Chairman, Rev. E. E. Clark, Elmhurst; James K. Lee, Elmhurst; H. A. Miller, San Leandro; O. A. Lane, Oakland; William Nat Friend, Oakland. They will have full charge of all arrangements for the convention and the personel of the committee guarantees a good time.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Oakland has a large flag pole, and we are glad to see it. All citizens love to honor their flag, but that this pole should have been raised and painted on Sunday is a crime against Christian citizenship that we cannot overlook. Our laws are so lax here, and the rules of society so easily overrun, that we get in the habit of seeing the Lord's day broken by bicycle races, Sunday picnics, etc., and consequently they do not arouse our feelings as they should. Our consciences get seared on this subject.

We even see large gangs of men made to work on Sunday for a private corporation in our city, and say nothing; but when business men of Oakland are appointed by the representative business body of the city to have a flag pole erected in honor of our natal day of this our Christian country, and they choose to partially erect the same and paint it on Sunday, when it was absolutely unnecessary, as they had all day Monday to do the work in if they wished, we think it is time to raise our voice in protest.

Not against any individual do we speak these words, because this is not a personal affair; but we speak against the practice of not observing the Lord's day as it should be observed, and we believe if the Endeavorers use their influence toward better keeping of that day, men in positions of responsibility, as these men were, would not dare to trample under foot the custom and rule that has (more than any other one thing) made our country what it is today.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

This month is always a dull one in all kinds of work in our county, and this year it seems especially so in church and Christian Endeavor work, as a larger number of young people have been away than usual. Nearly all our officers and superintendents are out of town.

Miss Grace Fisher, Superintendent of Missionary and Tenth Legion, returned from Yosemite last Saturday.

John C. Sulu, Chairman of our Floating Work, returned last Friday from Guerneville.

E. C. Lyon is at Guerneville for a two-weeks' stay and deer hunt.

C. F. Baker, President of the First Baptist Society, is camping with his family at Inverness.

When they all return watch out for a boom.

We have a letter from Edgar Pomeroy, in which he says: "The Alameda County Single Tax Society would be glad to have the attendance of a large number of Endeavorers at their meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, July 11th. The subject to be discussed is 'Should the Pulpit Preach the Single Tax,' and all present will have the privilege of the floor for five minutes."

TOPICS FOR SUNDAY.

"A Good Vacation," Mark 6: 7, 12, 13, 30, 32; "Seeing God in Nature," 1 Kings, 4:30-33, Job 12:7-9, Ps. 8:3-4, 19:1-6, 95:4-5, Matt. 6:28, 29.

It is often a great help to get away from books and study nature for awhile; one easily becomes too dependent upon books and loses his individuality—Willis H. Truman.

Our recreation times have a real and vital effect upon our serious hours. What we are when seeking pleasure help determines what we shall be when at work.—Anon.

The Tenth Legion enrolment this week has reached 14,577.

VOLUNTEER BICYCLE RIDE.

The members of the Volunteer Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church invited their friends to join them in a bicycle ride on the evening of Monday, July 3d. They met a few minutes before 8 o'clock at the home of their president, Charles S. Ayers, and waited till a little after 8 o'clock, so that any one who was compelled to be a little late might not be left behind. But it was a needless precaution; for all were on time.

After riding about on the smoothest streets, across the Twelfth street dam (which is not as smooth as it might be), around the boulevard, and through East Oakland, they disbanded about—well, let us not be too particular about how late it was before they returned.

Although the moon did not shine with especial brilliancy, and the wind did blow a little, all who went declared (and shall we doubt their word?) that they had spent a most delightful evening.

Throughout the trip there was no accidents. Of course there were the usual number of crises which require one to dismount rapidly—more rapidly than gracefully often. You know how it is when you are riding close together in a bunch and all start to laugh violently. The wheels describe a few sudden letter s's and are then drawn together, usually in groups of two or three. That is what caused the crises referred to above, for it was a jolly party and there seemed to be no end to the good jokes. Now this is a characteristic for which the Volunteers are well known; they do with a will whatever they undertake, whether it be work or pleasure.

We regret that the lack of space will not permit us to give the names of those who composed the party.

PRESS CHAIRMAN.

We regret to announce that owing to continued ill health Miss Grace Edson has found it impossible to continue as chairman of our Press Committee; nevertheless we are glad to state that the former chairman, Miss Dell Jewell of 608 Sixteenth street, has consented to serve again and all news items should be sent to her in the future.

NEWS FROM 23D AVENUE.

Interesting Items From a Growing Section.

TWENTY-THIRD AVENUE, July 7.—Mrs. Stella Maxfield, who attempted to commit suicide by taking carbolic acid last Monday, is resting easily, and will undoubtedly recover.

E. Pickford has had the cottage at 1162 Fourteenth street moved away and will erect a store building on the site.

Jacob Bills has bought his brother's interest in their butcher shop at 1122 Twenty-third avenue and will conduct the business alone.

James Miller, who was badly burned by the explosion of a rocket on the evening of the Fourth, will not loose the sight in his left eye, as was at first feared.

Ralph Knapp, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Knapp of 1362 Twenty-third avenue, was badly burned about the face by an explosion of powder while celebrating the Fourth. Though the injuries were very painful, no permanent injury was inflicted, and the lad is now doing nicely.

T. H. Cruff and daughter spent the Fourth out at the camp at Brower's Ranch.

Miss Maggie Miller will go to New York in about six weeks to join one of Gus Hill's theatrical companies. This will be Miss Miller's first appearance on the stage. She will be accompanied by Water Brown, who has been her instructor.

Miss Ethel Price is spending her vacation with her parents at their residence, 1572 Eighth avenue. Miss Price has been elected to teach another year in the grammar school at Austin, Nevada, being advanced to a higher position.

Mr. James Wood and family have moved from 1281½ Twenty-third avenue, to 1303 Twenty-fourth avenue.

Rev. E. L. Bennett returned on Wednesday from a vacation spent near Lake Tahoe.

MINES AND MINING

Central Eureka mining stocks bought and sold. R. L. Cheney, 530 Cal. St., S. F.

IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES.

The following installations in District No. 1 will be held by Deputy J. A. Jackson of the A. O. U. W.

A district meeting and installation will be held at Temple Lodge No. 11, at Temescal on Monday evening, July 10th.

California No. 1, July 11th, at Seventh and Peralta streets.

Occidental No. 6 and Oakland No. 2 will have a joint installation Friday evening, July 14th, at the latter's lodge room, Broadway, near Fourteenth street. Bay District, No. 226, at Golden Gate, will finish the installations for the present term.

The deputy earnestly requests all brothers to be present with him on these occasions.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Pride of the Forest Circle 122, C. O. F., will give a public installation of their officers next Tuesday evening, July 11th, at Gier's Hall, 511 Fourteenth street. The public is invited. There will be a short program and dancing after the program. This circle still holds the banner and takes in new members nearly every meeting night. Every Tuesday evening they have a good and welfare committee that sees that members and visiting members have a good time. Last Tuesday evening, Mrs. C. F. Murdoch was appointed deputy grand chief companion of this circle, but will be unable to install next Tuesday night, so Past Deputy Mrs. L. Veir and Past Deputy Mrs. F. Wetmore will install the new officers.

THE WOODMEN.

Woodmen of the World of this vicinity will take part in a cross-country tramp from this city to Mount Diablo, leaving July 14th and returning on the 17th inst. The time between these dates will be spent on the mountain. The party will be accompanied by vehicles to carry provisions and blankets and a most enjoyable time is expected.

There are now 45,000 members in the Pacific jurisdiction.

REBEKAHS.

At the last meeting of Brooklyn Rebekah Lodge No. 12, a very fine entertainment was given, one of the features being the farce "Who'll Win?" The principal characters were sustained by Misses Curtis, Bryant, and Woods. This feature was supplemented by a vaudeville performance in which a number of excellent sketches was given.

MASONIC TEMPLE

The design of Cunningham Brothers has been accepted for the Masonic Temple to be built at Seventh and Peralta streets. The cost of the structure will be about $15,000.

The main entrance to the hall is formed by a broad arch with two massive doric columns. The main vestibule is entered by mounting three stone steps. From this vestibule two entrances open, each by a pair of broad double doors, one leading up to the lodge rooms on the second floor, the other by a corridor to the large assembly hall on the ground floor. The assembly hall will be the largest and finest in Oakland, and will have a stage, dressing rooms, etc. The floor will be level and polished for dancing. The front portion of the ground floor will probably be used by the West Oakland Free Library.

The upper floor will be devoted to the lodge room, banquet hall, ante-rooms, ladies' parlor, gentleman's room, etc. The lodge room, which will be 40x60 feet, will be, perhaps, the finest in the State. The interior will have a wainscot of metal, beautifully panelled, and copperplated. The ceiling will have a dome sixteen feet in diameter. Special attention will be given to electric lighting, the dome having a circle of incandescent lights at its outer circumference.

The ladies' parlor will front on the street, directly over the main entrance. This room is to have a large open fire place. A gentlemen's room is also provided. In the rear is a banquet room, with serving room and kitchen. This banquet hall will easily accommodate 200 people at tables.

Bids will be advertised for on July 10th.

BUILDING NOTES.

F. M. Smith, architect and contractor, is erecting a fine residence in Centerville for H. W. Lynch.

J. O. Stocking goes to Mill Valley next week to take charge of a job for Contractor Harvey A. Klyce.

Baggage Checked at Home.
When a person wishes to take an outing, it is always a cause of worriment to have to check one's trunks and look after them until they are safely stowed away on the train or boat on which one intends to travel. This annoyance, however, is obviated by entrusting the care of baggage, including the checking of the same, to the Peoples Express Company. This is the leading express company in this city, and, in fact, on the coast. It checks the baggage at your house to any point on the Southern Pacific free of charge. The company's telephone is main 325. The office is at the northeast corner of Broadway and Ninth street. It has a branch office in Stockton at 16 and 18 North El Dorado street.

SUMMONS.

In the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, State of California.
Department No. 1.
C. F. MARTIN, Plaintiff,
vs.
FLORENCE S. MARTIN, Defendant.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, State of California, and the complaint filed in said county of Alameda, in the office of said Clerk of said Superior Court.

The people of the State of California send greeting to Florence S. Martin, defendant:

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after service on you of this summons, if served within this county, otherwise within thirty days.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as to the Court may seem proper, special references being made to the complaint on file herein for further particulars.

And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, State of California, this 21st day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

(Seal of Superior Court.) FRANK C. JORDAN, Clerk.
By J. P. COOK, Deputy Clerk.

RAILROAD MEN AT THE WEST OAKLAND YARDS.

SHIPPING AT LONG WHARF

RAILROAD POET'S WORK

FUN ON THE FOURTH

STORIES FROM THE SHOPS

There has been a great deal of freight arriving at the Oakland yards during the last few days. This is partly caused by the holiday on the Fourth, on which as little freight was moved as possible. The present rush is also caused by the arrival of delayed freight from the north and from over the Sunset route.

Fully five hundred carloads of freight were delayed in the north because of the burning of a trestle seven miles north of Grant's Pass. The rebuilding of the trestle has lately been completed and the freight is now being rushed through. It consists largely of lumber, telegraph poles and building materials.

LOCOMOTIVE SHOPS.

Quite a number of men have been added to the force in the locomotive shops.

It was supposed that with the resumption of the ten hour schedule it would not be necessary to increase the number of men employed, but the rush of work has necessitated an increase in the force.

From the present outlook it is thought that the increase will be permanent.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

The frame work for the new emergency hospital at the foot of Peralta street is nearly completed.

SHIPPING NEWS.

The Olga has finished discharging her cargo of sugar at Long Wharf and has gone to San Francisco to take on a cargo.

The Fort George finished unloading 55,000 sacks of sugar yesterday. On her return trip to the Hawaiian Islands part of her cargo will consist of machinery to be used in the sugar industry.

The Ruth is still unloading machinery for the Hawaiian Islands at Long Wharf. Her entire cargo will consist of the machinery for an immense and newly started sugar plantation.

The Monterey is discharging a mixed cargo of piles for the Santa Fe and ties for the Southern Pacific Company.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Bert Robinson of the Maintainance of Way Department spent his Fourth of July at Shasta.

Jack Muir, the storekeeper of the machine shops is away with his wife spending a ten days' vacation in the mountains back of Redding. He has promised his many friends a supply of fish and bear meat upon his return. As he is known to be an expert with a rifle his comrades are looking forward to some good bear stories.

Messrs. Jackson and Miner spent their holiday at a picnic near the fish ranch. They found the fresh air of the hills very exhilarating and especially enjoyed the drive through the canyons.

Harry Moseley, foreman of the boilermakers in the repair house, is spending a three months' vacation at Ukiah.

Al Prichard is making a short visit at the home of William Mountain. Mr. Prichard is employed in the machine shops at Sacramento. He was formerly of this city and Mr. Mountain and he were great chums but they have not seen each other for nearly forty years.

Harry Moseley had quite a gathering of young people at his home on the evening of the Fourth. The company was entertained by a fine display of fireworks after which refreshments were served, and a very pleasant evening passed with music and games.

Warren Hubbard of the machine shops and his daughter, Mrs. Louis Cobb and her children are still at a cottage in Forest Grove, Santa Cruz, heartily enjoying themselves.

Robert Hansen spent his Fourth of July vacation at Los Angeles.

"Old Tim" of West Oakland yards acted as referee in a bicycle race Sunday afternoon. He described the incidents of the race to J. Rodden, and Rodden gives Tim's version thus:

On the morning of the Fourth, while strolling through the yard,
I met my old friend Harrington, familiarly called "Tim."
"Good mornin,' Tim" says I to him; "you're working rather hard."
He eyed me rather closely, and sez he, "Good mornin', Jim."

I asked about the bike race, and to tell me of the fun
He had with Christensen and Jorgenson and Koster on the run.
With a merry twinkle in his eye, he laid his rake aside,
And this is what he told me with an air of wounded pride:

"I wint to riferee the race, just as The Tribune shtated,
I walked it out, an' sure enough, I was a little overhated.
Dan Keefe was there before me, his shoes were in his hand,
Across the way Bill Mountain lay, a shleepin' near the shtand.

"We tried to wake up Mountain. Aw! but he was shnorin',
Sounded like the noise you hear aroun' the Cliff House roarin'.
An' thin he got to dramin', aw! an' wild gesticulatin',
He thought he was in the boiler shop, his arms the air was batin'.

"He'd raise the dead at Tombstone, he was makin' such a din.
Says Keefe to me, 'Come here,' sez he, 'we'll shtick him wid a pin.
We shtuck him an' we shtuck him, the divil a move he'd make.
'Arrah, Tim,' sez Keefe, sez he to me, 'I wish we had your rake.

"'We'd rake him in, we'd wake him, Tim.' 'An' that we wud,' sez I.
So we had to lave him shnorin', as the race was drawin' nigh.
There was Christensen an' Jorgensen an' Koster on their wheels,
Wid all the dogs from Tomoscal a barkin' at their heels.

"They wur goin' a moile a minit, an' whin I waved my hat to shtop,
Koster found a short rail, an' in the ditch he wint kaflop.
The first I know the other two wur gone clane out o' sight.
An' whin we picked poor Koster up he was a holy fright.

"Sez Dan, 'We'll disconnict him an' bring him on wan side.
We'll tag him for the cripple track.' At this poor Koster cried.
Sez he to me, 'I'd win the race if you didn't wave the hat.'
Just thin Bill Mountain had woke up a yellin' out, 'That's what.'

"Thin they mounted me on Koster's wheel, an' Dan tried to shteer me.
I wanted Bill to shteady it, the divil wud not come near me.
He shnaked behind an' shoved it, an' thin they let me go.
Aw! my head wint shwimmin', I wint down, as my face can plainly show.

"We nivir saw the other two. I think they're runnin' yet.
On this account I must explain Bill Mountain lost his het.
So whin we got to town agin our throats were dry an' husky,
For our nonsinse, at his expinse, we took a drap of fushkey." J. R.

Whipped a Boy.

S. Kosunoski, a Japanese gardener, has been arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. He severely chastised twelve-year-old Carl Thier, whom he accuses of throwin stones and otherwise annoying him.

Will Get June Pay.

City Auditor Breed has made arrangements with four of the city banks whereby the warrants of the city employes for June will be cashed at the nominal discount of 2 per cent.

Charges Reduced.

The charges of burglary against William Connolly and William Halpin have been reduced to petty larceny.

ALDEN PEOPLE DISCUSS WANTS.

Committees Appointed to Confer With the Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the Telegraph Avenue and North Oakland Improvement Club was held in Alden last evening.

The first matter considered was the encroachment of the creek upon Claremont avenue at the point where that thoroughfare joins Telegraph avenue.

L. M. Hager reported that the road-bed at this point was not wide enough for two teams.

After considerable discussion the following committee was appointed to wait upon the owner of the land on the creek side, and see what he would be willing to do in the premises: R. J. Montgomery, J. G. Lemmon, W. C. Wallace and F. Friedberg.

Mr. Montgomery suggested that the club take a decided interest in the proposed new sewer system. He said it was time to unite with the Council on the matter and secure a system that would be a credit to the city and to the Council.

R. J. Montgomery, W. C. Wallace, F. Freidberg, L. N. Hager and C. Beebe were appointed a committee to confer with the Street Committee of the City Council and the Superintendent of Streets regarding the adoption of a suitable sewer system for Alden and this district.

The matter of sending delegates to the Central Club was discussed and finally laid over pending the organization of the central body.

L. N. Hager stated that he had been informed that a Second Ward Improvement Club was soon to be started, to merge all the small clubs into one.

This question was debated, and it was finally agreed that there was a crying need for the small clubs—therefore, this club would remain separate.

Secretary Wallace then stated that the various city officials had included in their estimates of expenses for the present year, improvements in the annexed territory to the extent of $87,500. He stated that while he had been informed that all that had been asked for would not be furnished this year, that some of the fire apparatus would be provided for this year. He suggested that the club communicate with the Council, stating what was most needed.

The relative merits of fire engines and chemicals were then discussed, some holding that one was better for the needs of Alden, while another insisted that a steamer would be the proper thing.

A special meeting will be held one week from last evening to consider this matter.

Mr. Hager was appointed a committee to secure the fire engine house for a meeting place for the club.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with the street railway company and endeavor to have them substitute the name of Alden for Temescal on all cars running to that place.

BAR-TRAY WITH A RECORD RECOVERED.

A silver bar-tray with side rail and elegantly chased goblets and symbolic figures, which at one time did service on the steamer Oakland, and later in the saloon of Harry Irwin on Thirteenth avenue, near the depot, was stolen from a trunk in which it had been packed, several days ago. Detective Shorey was set to work on the case and located the booty at the home of Mrs. Taylor, 720 East Twelfth street. The woman said she had bought it from a boy whom she did not know and had paid only 50 cents for it. The tray was turned over this morning to George Moffitt, son of the late James Moffitt of East Oakland, on a search warrant by Judge Smith.

Plans For a Bridge.

Major W. H. Heuer of the engineer corps in charge of the improvement of Oakland harbor has advertised for sealed proposals for the construction of steel highway drawspan and piers with approaches across the tidal canal at Oakland harbor. All bids must be in at 12 o'clock noon of August 9, 1899. Full information can be obtained at the engineer's office in the Flood Building, San Francisco.

SALARIES GO BACK

Mayor Snow Will Sign the Ordinance Replacing Them.

At the last meeting of the City Council, Councilman Mott introduced an ordinance which, if adopted, will restore to the old scale the salaries of the city employees, which were cut 25 per cent two months ago. This ordinance has been referred to the Committee of the Whole to be considered at an executive session.

There is a charter provision that the salary of no official can be raised while that person is in office. Therefore it becomes necessary for all those affected by the ordinance to resign and be reappointed. Some of the deputies have been on the anxious seat, fearing this opportunity to replace them would be taken advantage of. Some thought the Mayor would perhaps fail to approve the ordinance. Their anxiety is now at rest. The Mayor has stated that he will sign the ordinance as soon as it comes to him. He says it would be decidedly unfair to take advantage of the present condition to appoint someone else to a man's position, as it would seem like getting money under false pretenses. He states further that for himself he would rather reappoint the man; keep his compact, and then if there was any just reason for removing him from office, to do it the next day after his reappointment.

HONOR DR. DUNN.

Chicago Man Claims Discovery of an Oakland Physician.

According to dispatches published today a Chicago doctor takes great credit for discovering that disease germs lurk in the mouthpieces of telephones. He is just two years late in making the discovery, for the honor, if any, belongs to Dr. J. P. Dunn, ex-Health Officer of Oakland.

Two years ago Dr. Dunn in his official capacity examined several mouthpieces taken from telephones in ordinary use. He discovered many kinds of microbes and other foul matter, and recommended that every telephone be supplied with a little medicated towel, with which the mouthpiece should be wiped before being used. Dr. Dunn prepared an elaborate report on this subject, which was printed and aroused much interest throughout the State. As a result of his advice many telephones in Oakland have been supplied with little towels.—S. F. Call.

SMALL WRECK AT PORT COSTA.

Last Tuesday evening the Los Angeles Express crashed into the rear coach of the Atlantic Express at Port Costa, partially telescoping the car and injuring two passengers.

The two trains were following too close to each other and when the first train stopped at Port Costa the second could not be switched off soon enough and crashed into the one in front. Two women were hurt with flying glass and splinters but most of the passengers were warned in time to get out of the way.

JUDGE OGDEN WILL TAKE VACATION.

Superior Judge F. B. Ogden will leave Monday for a camping trip in Mendocino county. He will be relieved on the bench by Judge S. P. Hall, who has returned from his vacation at Felton.

Funds Needed.

There is a deficit of $1,000 in the treasury of the Associated Charities. Unless this condition can be relieved the various departments of the institution will be closed.

The superintendent, Mrs. Helen Kelley, will continue her duties at the office of the association, 1265 Franklin street, where applications for relief are made.

Left His Wife.

Mrs. Louise E. Mann has brought suit for divorce from James B. S. Mann on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in 1890. Mann is said to be in New Zealand. Reed & Nusbaumer represent the plaintiff.

CAPT. PETERSON'S LONG CHASE FOR CHARACTER ASSASSIN

A Still Hunt The Typewriter

Police Captain W. J. Peterson is tracking to his mountain fastness some assassin of character, who, the Captain alleges, has placed him in a false light before the community and brought down on his devoted head the wrath of some of Oakland's best known young men. It seems that a few weeks ago the miscreant, whoever he may be, wrote a letter on letterheads of the Chief of Police, and sent copies to certain young men who have always been considered good citizens. This letter warned them that many complaints had been made of their conduct and associates, and notified them that they were liable to arrest and punishment as vagrants, under section 647 of the Penal Code of the State of California.

The writer further warned the young men that unless they became engaged in some lawful occupation by the first of July, 1899, it would be his painful duty to prosecute them. This precious missive was signed "H. W. Peterson, Captain of Police of the City of Oakland."

The initials of the signature are not those of Captain Peterson, but the indignant recipients of the letters never thought of that. They lost no time in hunting up the Captain and demanding an explanation of his extraordinary threats. Captain Peterson denounced the letter as a forgery, and declared he would run down the perpetrator if it was the last act of his life. He would be as tireless as a bloodhound in pursuit of the scoundrel, and as remorseless as a buzz-saw when he captured him.

Disguising himself with property whiskers, the Captain put a well-thumbed copy of Sherlock Holmes' tremendous adventures in his pocket and sallied forth on his fatal quest. With fiendish cunning, the Captain's understudy had written the letter on a typewriter, so there could be no possibility of identifying his handwriting. Here was an obstacle that would have baffled, at the outset, any ordinary detective. But, as Byron says, "There never yet was human power that could evade, if unforgiven, the patient search and vigil long of him who treasures up a wrong."

Captain Peterson's patient search was at last rewarded. He captured the typewriter. At least he has a machine in his office marked "Exhibit A," on which he declares the document was written.

This important capture was effected two weeks ago, and as nothing has since been heard of the dastardly author of the letter, the aggrieved young men are beginning to bandy scurrile jests about lobsters chasing hares, and some of the more malevolent ones even go so far as to impugn the Captain's sincerity in the matter. The officer, however, points triumphantly to the indubitable fact that no first-class detective of the Sherlock Holmes school ever looks for the criminal first. The first thing he does is to hunt for a clew, and as Captain Peterson stoutly maintains that he has secured the best possible clew to the malefactor's identity, he asks the public to suspend judgment and await developments.

NEW COLORADO ROAD

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 7.—Incorporation papers for the Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek Railway Company have been filed. The incorporators are E. W. Giddings Jr., James S. Burns, J. R. McKinnie, H. G. Lunt and F. M. Woods. The capital stock of the company is $2,000,000, and of this amount 8,000 shares of $100 each are to be preferred stock and 12,000 shares, common. It is believed that the proposed short line between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek, for which surveys have been made, will be built without further delay.

WHAT I THINK OF THE CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

By J. S. FOX, Reliance Instructor

I went with a large party of Reliance Club boys to Woodward's Pavilion last evening to see the new champion spar with his brother Jack, and also with Aleck Greggains.

His improvement was a revelation to me. He has copied Tommy Ryan's style of fighting in some respects, especially in leaning forward from the hips without bending the knees.

As his opponent would lead at him he would merely straighten up, drawing his head out of danger, without changing the position of his feet in the least.

He appears as quick as a lightweight when in action.

I consider him one of the greatest fighters that has ever entered the ring.
